DEATH.

At Ichang, on the 2nd July, the beloved wife of C. P. LYNNBOIS, of the I. M. Customs, aged 23 years.

The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, AUGUST 10TH, 1887.

The Portuguese steamship Bio Lima, Captain Andreia, left Tientin on the 25th ultimo for Japan.A native newspaper called the Fu-ya-za, or "Progressive Literature," has been established in Hankow under foreign superintendence.The Shen-pao says—The Tung-ling Yamen has selected twenty-two officials who are to travel abroad, and they had an audience with the Emperor on the 25th ult.The Straits Times is glad to hear that the Mr. Pohlering is making steady progress toward recovery from the wound received lately, and will shortly be able to attend to his duties.The Shen-pao says that the land for the new Hartalai railway (from Kun-lung Ching to the New Wall) has been purchased. The total amount is 1,000 mu or about 250 acres.The C. M. S. N. Co.'s steamer Fusilat has slipped off the rocks and sunk. Fortunately she was abandoned by the crew on the night previously (30th July), so no loss of life took place.The Editor of the Muslim Mail received the distinction of K.C.M.G. for the recent Jubilee distribution of honours. We believe this is the first instance of such a high distinction being conferred on the editor of an Indian paper.A passenger was held yesterday morning at the Mortuary on the bodies of the two men who were killed by the fumes arising from a quantity of dynamite exploding in the Wata tunnel. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

Prince Chun, in accordance with the Emperor's desire, has instructed the Board of Revenue to cut ready 1½, 2,000,000 for the expenses of the Emperor's coming merriment. His Highness has been sick recently owing to excessive work.

A Shanghai native paper says that a certain Mandarin, who was a passenger to Hongkong on steamer Fusilat, which left there on Sunday morning, 31st ult., lost about $1,300 worth of jewelry. The theft was at once reported to the Police Station.The Chinese Times says that the British Consul General, who was a passenger to Hongkong on steamer Fusilat, which left there on Sunday morning, 31st ult., lost about $1,300 worth of jewelry. The theft was at once reported to the Police Station.

Another instance of the financial results of wild speculation in shares transpired yesterday. When the manager of a public company arrived at the office in the morning he found the bookkeeper was not at his desk. It is known that he had been speculating in shares and could not meet his engagements.

The Courier says the steamer Hsien-chang arrived at Shanghai on the 28th ult., with the cargo of the Fusilat. Mr. Pearce, the chief officer of the Hsien-chang, is reported missing. He was last seen on the quarter-deck, a port 2 m. on the 29th ult., and it is supposed that he fell overboard.The German steamer Deutschland arrived at Nagasaki from Hongkong on the 1st inst. with sugar, cotton and sugar—the sugar for Nagasaki, and the tea for Keiki. Sir Cecil and Lady Smith and daughter were fixed to leave Nagasaki, subject to delivery at the expiry of her present charter.As far as we can learn (says the Press) Sir C. and Lady Smith probably will remain in the management of the vessel. Sir Cecil and Lady Smith and daughter were fixed to leave Nagasaki, subject to delivery at the expiry of her present charter.

A Japanese native paper says that some prominent merchants of Takao said, "I am contemplating the purchase of a Rock to, with a capital of several millions. There is some uncertainty as to whether Kanagawa or Yokohama should be selected as the site of the works." It is probable that the letter will be favoured.

The Penang Gazette of 29th ultimo states—"News has reached Penang to-day of the death of the Sultan of Perak, 2nd of July, yesterday morning. The deceased Sultan Yusuf was only raised to the sultanate last year, having before that been known as the Regent Raja Muda, and at the same time that he got this step in rank Raja Idris was made Raja Muda with the right of succession to the sultanate. Raja Idris will therefore, no doubt, be proclaimed Sultan."The Japanese paper says that the British Consul General, who was a passenger to Hongkong on steamer Fusilat, which left there on Sunday morning, 31st ult., lost about $1,300 worth of jewelry. The Singapore Free Press says—H. E. Sir Frederick Weld has returned from Peking without having brought the treaty negotiations with the Bandarhares of that State to a close. It is hoped, however, that ere long this important question will be settled in a satisfactory manner. The Bandarhares appear to be willing to execute a treaty upon the general basis of the Johore treaty, and it is probable that in some such way the relations between the Straits Settlements and Pahang will be put upon a proper footing.

The Free Press publishes the rules under which "Admirals" are allowed to settle in Tonquin and Annam, and points out that probably the roles are levelled at Chinese, who are almost the only Asiatics who have immigrated. The annual poll-tax ranges from francs 10 to 25, 100, up to 500 francs a head, according to property held, ticket money yearly; and the Chinese raid is held responsible for the increase in the cost of living during the forenoon of Sunday and conducted on board the usual collisions except his summon referring to the position that Japan had taken among nations, and her future influence abroad as to Christian and temporal affairs. He pointed of bills of noon with the other members of the warroom men and engaged in conversation for some time. After this he went to his room, and then, in the afternoon, for the purpose of taking an afternoon nap, it is supposed. About 2 p.m. the attention of several members of the mess was attracted by a noise in the hall in the Captain's room, and upon the door of the door being opened, he was found prostrate on the floor, unconscious and breathing scarcely. Upon being lifted into his bunk he breathlessly uttered a few words, and then died. Deceased promised to pay the debt on 4th inst. Mr. Atwood refused to accept on that date and pressed for payment at once. Deceased was unable to pay them. Ng Atwood then stated that he had obtained possession of the instrument pointed out. My master called out "Save me" and Ng Atwood then said, "I am here to help you." Both men then ran away. I followed Ng Atwood and on meeting two Police constables I told them about the affair. They arrested Ng Atwood. I do not know when Ng Atwood was arrested. They brought their weapons with them to the shop. I did not hear them threaten before he was stabbed. I did not hear Ng Atwood tell Ng Atwood to stab deceased. I think Ng Atwood intended to kill deceased. Deceased did not receive any blows.

Leong Amei took up the case. On 2d inst., about 7 a.m., I was in my shop when I heard a noise near door. I went outside and looked in at the door. I saw Ng Atwood stabbing deceased with a long, sharp instrument. Almost immediately afterwards I saw Ng Atwood cut open the head of the first witness with a chop. The man ran away. I did not see them catch him. They brought him back to the Police Station and the deceased again died. I think Ng Atwood was the man who stabbed him.

C. G. 643 stated that on 2d inst. about 8 a.m. he was in the Station of Yau-mei. He heard a noise in the streets and ran out. He saw deceased coming towards the Station following Ng Atwood. Deceased called out "I am stabbed; that is the man." He (witness) called out to P.C. 231 who arrested him. They brought him back to the Police Station and the deceased again died. I think Ng Atwood was the man who stabbed him.

P.C. 231 stated that on 2d inst. about 7.30 p.m. he was in Hsing-hwa Sound, and remained there until 4.30 p.m. on the 3d inst., when the weather became very bad. He went to the police station and paid a strong bill. At 4.40 p.m. he spoke the Leng-sau, of Spider Island, bound to Amoy with Chincun's Circus and numerous boatmen. The vessel was making bad weather all the time, and the two elephants could be seen forward, having all appearances not suffered from any sea malady; in fact taking it all in a regular old sailor. On the 3d at 4 p.m., the Ningpo anchored at the Taichow islands with a heavy sea. The wind was high and the sea was high also. At 10 a.m. he saw the anchored anchor and proceeded with strong bows and equally weather, which increased in violence, and the vessel commenced to work heavily. At 8.45 the foretopmast carried away, coming down with a frightful crash, so the prompt pull back to the Taichow group and at 11 a.m. anchored there. At 6.30 p.m. the weather moderated, and she once more hove up for Shanghai, strong breeze prevailing. The weather was fair and the vessel made good speed. At 10 p.m. he reached the Yau-mei Station. About 7.30 a.m. I was called into the charge room and found deceased sitting there. I examined him and found a wound in his right side. He appeared to be in great pain. While I was examining him the last witness brought Ng Atwood to the station. He said Ng Atwood was the man who had stabbed deceased coming towards the Station following Ng Atwood. He said Ng Atwood was the man who had stabbed him. He arrested him. He said he was not the one who had stabbed deceased. Witness then took him to the Police Station. Deceased was not present at the time. The witness said he was not present at the Yau-mei Station. About 7.30 a.m. I was called into the charge room and found deceased sitting there. I examined him and found a wound in his right side. He appeared to be in great pain. While I was examining him the last witness brought Ng Atwood to the station. Deceased pointed out Ng Atwood as the man who had stabbed him. I asked deceased what he had done. He said he was not the one who had stabbed deceased. Ng Atwood was not present at the time. POST-OFFICE NOTICES.

When Correspondence has been mis-sent or delayed (both of which are liable to happen occasionally) all that the addressee need do is note on the cover, Send to my office or Received at 7 p.m., or as the case may be, forward it to the Postmaster-General. This should be noted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is a mistake to let such matters pass for fear of giving trouble, a course which generally gives more trouble in the end.

LOCAL DELIVERY—No delivery is attempted on board Ship at the Peak, Kowloon, Aberdeen, &c., nor at any private house (even though situated in the address) when there is a place of business nearer, at which delivery can be effected.

The Postal Guide for 1886, revised to date will be found in the Daily Press Directory, p. 385 large edition, p. 711 small edition. This is the only authorised complete Summary of Postal information published in Hongkong.

THE authorized List of Posts issued in connection with this paper is the one published twice each day in our Extrit; which is given corrected to a much later hour than that given below.
